The Michigan Constitution makes it clear that judges are not to make law but rather interpret the law. The Michigan Supreme Court is considering taking steps that would change the law by denying Michigan asbestos disease victims their rights to a jury trial.

It look like the Michigan Supreme Court are being used as tools of the asbestos industry and big business to deny working people their constitutional rights to jury trails when harmed by corporate misconduct.

The real crisis in Michigan is the failure of corporations to take responsibility for their bad actions and the willingness of big business to blame the victims of corporate misconduct instead of holding the corporations accountable.
